ABOUT THE COLLEGE. . .

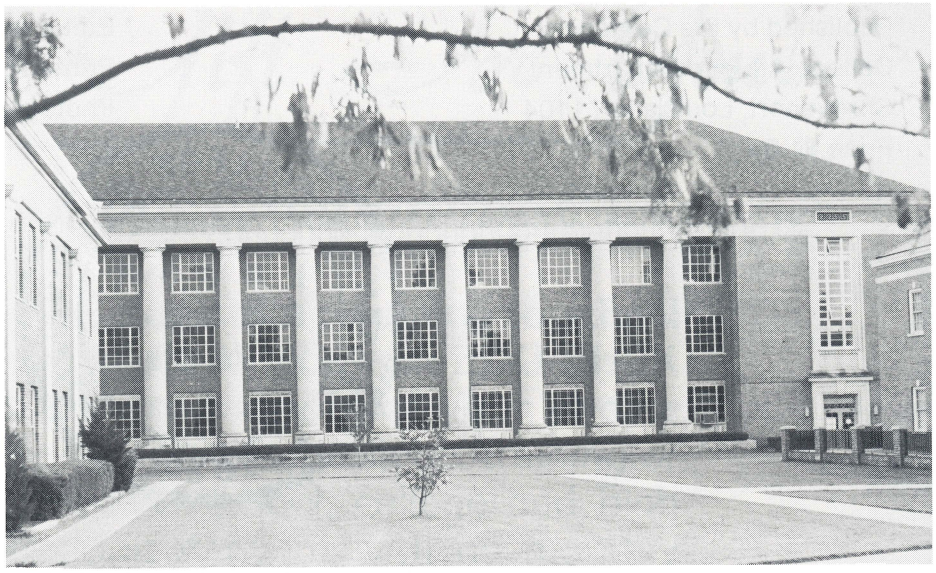
A liberal arts college, Centenary has always had a strong academic reputation and offers a superior education for students capable of intellectual leadership. An excellent student-teacher ratio of 13-1 means much more individual attention for the student.

Centenary College was founded in 1825 and is the oldest chartered institution of higher learning west of the Mississippi River.

It is a full-accredited, four-year liberal arts college affiliated with the United Methodist Church. Students select three courses in each of the four major divisions of the College — humanities, natural sciences, social sciences and fine arts.

Centenary's departments are individually outstanding. The college choir is known on an international level, its theater and music departments are increasingly popular in the North Louisiana area and Centenary's school of church careers is very distinctive.

Other departments also have high credentials. Of pre-med students at Centenary, over 80 percent qualify for medical school (the national average is but 39 percent), and 100 percent of its pre-law students get accepted to law school. The foreign language and geology departments are both improving, while the graduate program and freshmen class at Centenary have both shown increases.

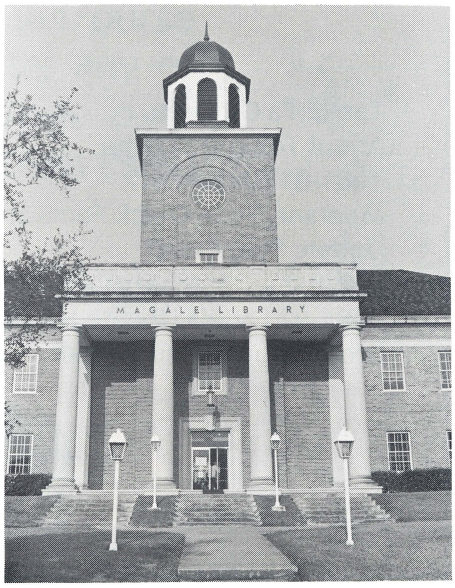


As one can determine, Centenary is an important asset to Shreveport, the center of the Ark-La-tex region.

Situated in northwest Louisiana — 20 miles — to the Texas state line, Shreveport's greater area numbers over 350,000.

The city plays annual host to the Holiday-in-Dixie Festival (April), the Red River Revel (September) and the Louisiana State Fair (October).

On the state fairgrounds is Shreveport's 52,000 seat State Fair Stadium, the present site of the Independence Bowl played every December. The stadium is used by several major college football games each fall and was the former home of a World Football League team.



The Captains, the city's major league baseball entry, are members of the Class AA Texas League. At times throughout the year, Shreveport hosts major golf and tennis events.

"Next door" to Shreveport in Bossier are Barksdale Air Force Base and Louisiana Downs. The race track facility in Bossier is one of the nation's fastest-growing thoroughbred types of its kind.

The Shreveport area is definitely an experience to enjoy - and so is Centenary.

ABOUT TONIGHT'S GAME . . .

Canterbury Perfect on Opening Night

There is always something special about opening night . . . a crisp feeling fans and coaches feel alike as the lights sparkle the arena . . . players feel it too . . . new uniforms, fresh out of the box . . . leather shoes and balls . . . referee's in their black and white stripes . . . the whistle blows . . . and the 1981-81 season is underway.

With it are the hopes of a winning season, a berth to the NCAA tournament in March, and the Gentlemen's third consecutive winning season. Such is the hope fo Centenary head basketball coach Tommy Canterbury.

Tonight, Canterbury is going after his fourth consecutive opening game victory without a loss. Canterbury's teams are 3-0 with victories over Northwestern in 1979 (93-81), Houston Baptist in 1980 (76-68) and College of the Ozarks in 1981 (92-79).

However, on this night Centenary College plays host to a very sound basketball team out of the Big Sky Conference, Montana State. The Bobcats and Gentlemen are going at it for only the second time. The two schools met for the first time in 1979 with Montana dominating 104-82.

Three returning starters, a fine group of freshmen, and an exciting schedule highlight the upcoming season for the Montana State University men's basketball team.

The Bobcats lost three seniors off last season's 16-11 squad that finished second in the Big Sky. Of the three, two were starters, Harry Heineken and Bill Kreiger, while Duey Kautzmann was a reserve.

"It hurts when you lose an all-league performer like Harry," head basketball coach Bruce Haroldson stated. "He played very well for us in his two years and he will be missed. Bill Kreiger will be tough to replace in the middle."

Heading the list of returnees is first-team All-Big Sky forward Doug Hashley. The 6-7, 240 pounder led the Bobcats in scoring averaging 15.9 points and 9.0 rebounds per game last season. His 59.9 percent field goal mark last season was a school record and ranked him 24th nationally. Hashley is considered to be one of the best shooters in the Big Sky. His leadership and experience will be a big factor for the Bobcats.

Other returning starters are senior forward John Maclin and junior guard Bethel Debnam.

Maclin was the Bobcat's third leading scorer averaging 13.4 points and second leading rebounder with 5.5 per game in his initial season at Montana State. Haroldson feels the 6-5, 200 pounder will be even more effective this year.

Both Hashley and Maclin have been placed on the Pizza Hut Classic ballot along with Centenary's All-America candidate Cherokee Rhone. Together the three players should match up for a very physical game.

The Bobcats floor general this season will be Debnam. Debnam is a 6-3 leaper who scored 184 points and handed out 72 assists in his first season at the point guard position. Going into his second season, Debnam should be one of the best guards in the Big Sky.

Montana will start three returning starters and two freshmen. Hashley, Maclin and Debnam will start from last season, while Jeff Epperly, an all-state selection in Montana last season, will start at a guard. In the middle Tryg Johnson or Greg Walters will start. Either way, both players are 6-11 and weigh 225 pounds.

The list of returning lettermen includes seniors Phil Henderson and Dean Petrosewicz, junior Greg Palmer and sophomore Mike Erickson.

Henderson is 6-6, and is considered the team's pure shooter. He played in a sixth-man capacity last season and scored 6.5 points per game.

Palmer split time with Debnam at the end of the season. Haroldson looks to Palmer for his "court moxie" and stability in the backcourt.

Erickson played in only eight games as a freshman and averaged 0.9 points per game.

Joining the returning lettermen is a crop of five freshmen. The freshman list includes Jeff Epperly, a 6-4 guard, Craig Kilborn, a 6-6 guard, Phil Layher, a 6-7 forward, and a pair of 6-11 centers, Tryg Walters and Greg Johnson.

Overall, coach Haroldson goes into the 1981-82 season with confidence and optimism. "We have some young players who should blend with the veterans and make us a contender this season," he said. "A lot of our questions will be answered after our tough non-conference schedule. The Big Sky will be tough so we had better be ready."

Haroldson begins his fourth season as head coach of the Bobcat men's basketball team. In his three years as the Bobcat's mentor, Haroldson has led the Bobcats to three straight winning seasons and back to back trips to the Big Sky Conference post-season tournament. Last season marked the first time since the 1950-52 seasons that any Montana State squad has had three consecutive winning seasons.

In his three seasons at Montana State, Haroldson has compiled a 45 and 34 record for a 57 percent winning mark. His overall collegiate coaching record is 130-66 with four years at Mesa State College.

GENTS

'81-'82 OUTLOOK

A HEALTHY FRONT LINE. . . ANOTHER WINNING SEASON

According to Centenary head basketball coach Tommy Canterbury foresight is always better than hindsight.

Canterbury knows what last year could have been. Centenary was bidding for its second Trans America Athletic Conference championship in as many years until Gent All-America candidate Cherokee Rhone injured his left knee forcing him to the sidelines for the remainder of the season. In all Rhone missed 12 games. On the other hand, though, Canterbury knows the potential of his '81-'82 squad.

There's no secret to the Gentlemen's '81-'82 attack. It's Cherokee Rhone, Centenary's 6-9, senior, center, from Springhill, Louisiana. In addition, for the second consecutive year Canterbury is enriched with a solid nucleus from which to begin. With three returning starters, two part-time starters, and 12 returning lettermen, Canterbury feels confident Centenary will capture its third consecutive winning season.

"Experience is a factor in our favor," Canterbury said. "We are solid in two key positions that are usually not flexible, at center and point guard. We are also going to be more than adequate in the two non-flexible positions, at the forwards."

At center, Rhone, a first team TAAC selection for the last two years and newcomer of the year in 1980, is one of the premier players in the country. He is an excellent team player and last year averaged 18.4 points and 9.0 rebounds per game while shooting 65 percent from the field and 77 percent from the free throw line. Napoleon Byrdsong, Centenary's point guard, led the Gents in assists last year handing out 5.6 a game while averaging 7.3 points per game. He also led the team in steals with 37.

The Gents also return Willie Jackson, a 6-5, 190, sophomore, from Sibley, Louisiana. Jackson was newcomer of the year in the TAAC in 1981 (the second consecutive year a Centenary player was honored) and averaged 17.2 points and 7.9 rebounds per game. He led the team in blocked shots with 45.

But perhaps the key factor for Centenary this year will be Eric Bonner. A sophomore from Shreveport, Louisiana, Bonner started in nine games while averaging 6.3 points and 4.9 rebounds per game.

"Bonner is going to be an important factor for us this year," Canterbury explained. "He can play as a forward or as a center. Either way, we are going to have to give Cherokee a rest at least 5 to 6 minutes a game. Eric is going to have to grow up real fast. He has the potential to be a real good basketball player, however, we realize potential does not win games."

Although Centenary appears solid in three positions, Canterbury is very optimistic that the Gents will be healthy this year. "Obviously whether or not we stay healthy is of utmost importance," Canterbury said. "I have never had the injury problems that I had last year. It's a variable you can't control. At one time last year we had to reach for our 8, 9, and 10th men. When you have to start the middle of your roster, it's going to show.

"There were some positive things that came out of it though. A lot of our young players were put under fire right away. We were able to see what they could do early. That's not the way I like to bring them along, although we still secured a winning season."

In the backcourt, Centenary lost its best perimeter shooter, Steve Kelly, to graduation. The Gentlemen have three experienced returning guards and two newcomers to fill the vacancy. Lorin George, a 6-5, 190, junior, from Gray, Louisiana averaged 4.2 points, Steve Burkhalter, a 6-4, 175, senior, from Ruston, Louisiana averaged 3.3 points, and Greg Haddox, a 5-11, 165, senior, from Ruston, Louisiana averaged .6 points per game.

"We only had two available scholarships," Canterbury said. "It was most important that we signed a point guard. With Haddox, George, and Burkhalter returning I am pleased to fill the vacancy with Reginald Hurd (a 6-1, 160, freshman, from Dallas, Texas) and Chris Weaver (a 6-3, 175, freshman, from Ashland, Louisiana). Hurd averaged 23 points a game in high school.

"Because of Cherokee's inside strength, we see a lot of zones," Canterbury mentioned. "Therefore, it's important that our younger players pick up the slack. I feel we have the people, we just need to get the most out of them."

Rusty Ward, a 6-6, 195, senior, should provide the Gents with some extra fire power. Ward averaged 8.4 points and 4.3 rebounds per game while starting in 17. He is slated to start at a forward position along with Jackson, however, there are four other Gents capable of stepping in at anytime.

"Greg (Smith), Jerry (Smith), Morgan (Sanders), and Jimmy (Disbrow) are going to provide us with some depth. But let me say it's going to be very important for them to provide us with a lot of consistency. These players are going to make the difference whether or not we have a winning season."

The Gentlemen's biggest concern for the '81-'82 season centers around Centenary's health status. If the Gents stay in tact and the younger players come around early in the year, it will be another banner year for Centenary.

"I feel that our group will rebound from last year's weak second half," Canterbury said. "And I feel we can make a run at the conference championship. Barring injuries, it's a very realistic goal."

THE ADMINISTRATION. . .

THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Donald A. Webb

A pair of prides characterizes Centenary: pride of place, and pride of prowess. The first is a delight in this good campus, its gardens and groves and fine buildings — we care about the place in which we live.

The second is a deep admiration for all the students who offer their abilities for public enjoyment: the Choir, the athletes, the artists, the actors and musicians. . . For Centenary is an incredible little College: it has pianists who play as well as Cherokee, and sopranos as good as our gymnasts!

So, especially in the Gold Dome, our pride shows. You can see it, hear it, feel it. Centenary believes in its Gents, and loves its Ladies: it will be an exciting year!

So are the words of Centenary's easy going dynamic President, Dr. Donald A. Webb.

It is certainly a tribute to the Centenary athletic department to have such a strong supporter as they do in Dr. Donald A. Webb.

Dr. Webb takes the necessary time from a busy schedule on campus and in the community to stay constantly abreast of Centenary athletics.

"The thing that amazes me about athletics," Webb said, "is that more than anything else, it brings so obviously to the surface, the excellence in our students."

"Here we are, a school with an enrollment of only 1,200, yet we can be proud of 14 All-Americans in different sports, with two athletes that are the best in their field.

"It's the kind of marvelous mystery one cannot but enjoy working with.

"I'll do everything I can to foster and support our athletic program. And I will certainly be at every basketball game I'm able to attend."

The dynamic Webb has an impressive past interlaced with activities in sports. He played soccer and rugby while living in his native Britain, then coached rugby at Drew University for three years.

Dr. Webb is a constant man in motion, traveling around the country and speaking in his entertaining and moving style.

Webb received his early education at King's private school and Cambridge University. Spending eight years as a British Royal Navy officer, Webb's last three were as Commanding Officer of the ship, H.M.S. Switha.

Webb's interest in the ministry and higher education brought him and his family to the United States in 1958. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Ohio Wesleyan in 1960 and earned a Master of Divinity degree three years later from The Methodist Theological School in Ohio.

Webb's next degree came at Drew University — site of his rugby coaching — with a doctorate in 1966. He went back to The Methodist Theological School where he worked as a theology and literature professor, vice president and chief development officer.

Webb has found the additional time to author two plays and publish several articles. He and his wife Renee have five children and eight grandchildren.

THE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Walt Stevens

Walt C. Stevens Jr., endowed with an extreme background as an administrator, was appointed director of athletics at Centenary College August 11 and immediately began the task of restructuring the athletic department.

Three words, class, dynamic, and enthusiastic, can best describe the new director. A native of Macon, Georgia, the 52-year old Stevens was a graduate of the United States Naval Academy in 1951. He later earned a Masters degree from Louisiana Tech and spent 30 years in the Air Force.

While in the Air Force, Stevens served in the National Military Intelligence Center at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. In addition, he served on the Staff for Intelligence at Barksdale Air Force Base until his retirement February 1, 1981.

"I always wanted to get back into athletics," the new director stated. "I am real happy to have the privilege to work with such a fine organization here at Centenary. Centenary College is going to maintain a strong heritage in college athletics while I'm here. Centenary can become the envy of every college in the country of its size."

Stevens originally came to Centenary in February and went to work as the Development Counselor in charge of raising academic and athletic scholarships at Centenary. He was very successful and showed excellent administrative skills.

From 1957-60 Stevens coached freshman basketball and baseball at Georgia Tech. He studied under the legendary Bobby Dodd who coached at Georgia Tech for 30 years.

Walt is married to Caroline Stillwell Stevens. They are the parents of five children.

TOMMY CANTERBURY

HEAD COACH

When Centenary head basketball coach Tommy Canterbury accepted the head position in midstream four years ago, he didn't promise a championship, but he did vow to rebuild the program and bring credibility to the college.

At 34, Tommy is one of the youngest coaches in the Trans America Athletic Conference. Born May 18, 1947 in Ruston, Louisiana, Canterbury earned a Bachelor's degree in Social Studies at Louisiana Tech in 1970. He went on and earned a Master's degree in Physical Education at Tech in 1970. Tommy is married to Carol Ann Thornhill of Columbia, Louisiana. They have one son, Chad, 7.

Although Canterbury has brought Centenary a TAAC Championship and two consecutive winning seasons, it hasn't been peaches and cream along the way. In his first season, Canterbury took over in midseason (1977) and finished the year with 6 wins and 9 losses. Canterbury's first full season wasn't much better. The head mentor finished the year 9-20.

It was Canterbury's second full season when Centenary went from Rags to Riches. The year started off slow, but by the time the last talley was in, Centenary had won its first TAAC Championship and recorded its first winning season since the Robert Parish era ended in 1976. The Gents finished the 1980 campaign 15-14.

Last season, Canterbury's bunch played well and finished the season at 16-12. It was the second consecutive winning season for Centenary, and had Gent All-America candidate Cherokee Rhone stayed healthy for the whole season, who knows what the final results might have indicated.

"I've made the statement saying we want a solid program that will result in winning teams year after year," coach Canterbury said. "I knew we would have to take a few steps back and make some major changes in order for our program to have a solid foundation. We went through two calendar years of losing before producing a successful calendar year. From midseason in 1977 to midseason in 1979 we were 16-37, but from 1979 to 1981 we have upped our season record to 30 and 18. That's what I want to stress."

When Canterbury and company began in 1978 they changed their whole recruiting philosophy. Canterbury decided to accent his recruiting to ball players in the south and to four year players.

"We want solid people," coach Canterbury emphasized. "I want freshmen to come here and play four years and leave with a degree. We're not interested in a player unless he's interested, not only in our program but in a college degree as well. When we recruit people we try to find players that are similar off the court in personalities because it tends to make them more cohesive on the court. In turn, they seem to play better. To get that type of player, that is good players and good people, we think background, interest, and personalities play a major role. It took us two years to find those type of players."

Canterbury has certainly found those type of players evidenced by the success he has obtained off and on the court the last two seasons. But the head coach doesn't take all the credit.

"I'm extremely fortunate to have a coach like Tommy Vardeman in my corner," Canterbury said. "He has been involved in recruiting college players 11 years now. He has coached championship teams at Louisiana Tech, here at Centenary, and at Henderson State University as well. His contributions are tremendously outstanding. Without Vardeman, it would be most difficult for this program to succeed."

Together Tommy and Tommy have guided the program in the right direction and have successfully put together a competitive winning team. They have spent countless hours scouting and searching for the right chemistry, and in that chemistry, there is one major element Canterbury talks about.

"If there is one thing that I am trying to do more than anything else, it's getting away from a one-player situation." Canterbury said. "It happened with Robert Parish, and it almost happened with The Chief (Cherokee Rhone). If Centenary has a star, we don't want our program to be dependent on one player. We want All-Americans, but we want to build a solid program from top to bottom. That is a sign of a solid program. If a team can produce 500 or above with or without superstars is the bottom line. I believe we have insured our program."

We Set The Pace.

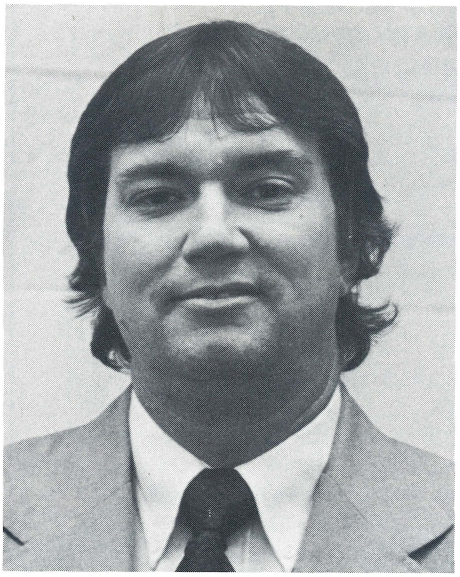
TOMMY VARDEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH



An Urban Cowboy at heart, Centenary assistant basketball coach Tommy Vardeman guarantees you the best deal in town, and that's a fact.

Guarantee ya, you know it. An honest, up front, and best of all, eager to meet you type of guy, who loves being around people and boast about getting along with anyone and everyone.

"I'm not bashful or shy," Vardeman contends. "I get along with everybody. I don't like anyone to city slick me. I like em to be up front and tell me exactly where they stand."

At 39, Vardeman stands 6-4 and weighs 210. Entering his 16th season of coaching Vardeman graduated from Stephen F. Austin with a B.S. in Physical Education in 1965. He began coaching ninth grade basketball at Cleveland High School in Cleveland, Texas. From there Vardeman spent the next three years at Crosby, Channelview, and Liberty-Eylau compiling a 76-36 record. In 1970, Tommy accepted the graduate assistant position at Louisiana Tech and stayed there one year, completing a Master's in Education. Then it was off to Missouri Baptist Junior College, where Vardeman was the head mentor for one year. From there, went to Henderson State University in Arkansas for two seasons, and then back to Tech as the head assistant for four more years. In 1978, Vardeman left coaching and went into private business, until head basketball coach Tommy Canterbury asked Vardeman to sign on at Centenary in 1980.

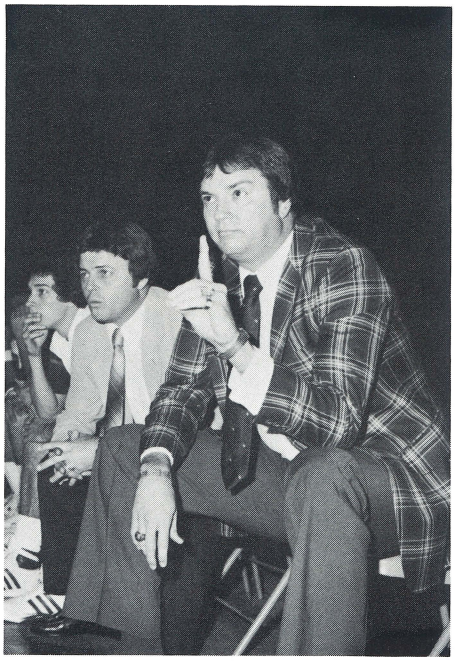
"I went into the wholesale jewelry business," coach Vardeman said with a slight grin. "I played a lot of golf that year, but I just fooled around with jewelry."

Born November 16, 1942 at Fort Worth, Texas, Tommy will again work with the Gentlemen on the floor in 1981-82. In addition, he will head the scouting and recruiting of future Centenary players.

The main thing about Tommy is the success he has had at every level of basketball. He has never had a losing season in 15 years of coaching. Vardeman's success centers around a strong positive approach to the game.

"I like to lay it out how it is," Vardeman said. "We tell our guys like it is. When we go out to play a game we go out and play the best we can and see what happens. However the outcome, after 40 minutes, it's over. We prepare our guys before the lights go on. When the game is over, it doesn't do any good to badger the players. These kids aren't robots, and besides our schedule is such that we can't afford to be thinking about the past. All the hollering and screaming after the game is useless."

Vardeman, however you describe him, is just a little country, in a lot of cowboy. He is married to the former Sharon Crocker of Garland, Texas. They are the parents of two daughters, Juli, 14, and Jennifer, 11.



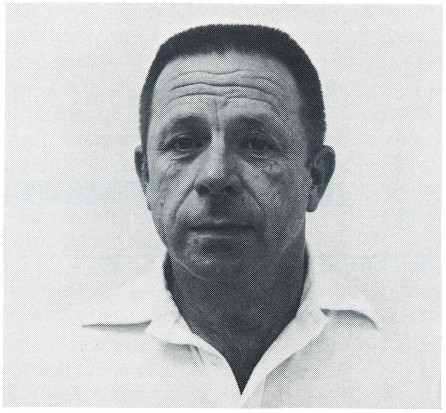
CARL LIESMANN — TRAINER

At 46, Liesmann keeps the athletes at Centenary bandaged together while handling all the training duties.

Liesmann spent 13½ years in the Air Force, five years with the U.S. Postal Service, and five years as an assistant trainer at South Field High School, in Shreveport, Louisiana. Carl began training in the Air Force until a knee injury forced him into an early retirement. After his stay with the Postal Service, Carl studied under Sam Wilkerson (now the head trainer at Louisiana Tech) at Southfield High School for five years before coming to Centenary in 1977.

"I love being around the athletes," Liesmann stated. "It's the involvement I like the most. Just being a part of it all is what I enjoy."

Carl and his wife, Dorthy (from Hineston, Louisiana), have three children. One daughter, Angela, 13 and two sons, Warde, 21, and Wendell, 18.



DAVID KNIGHT — STUDENT TRAINER

From San Antonio, Texas, Dave will be the team manager for Centenary this season. David came to Centenary from Roosevelt High School in San Antonio. He spent one year at Lon Morris Junior College in Jacksonville, Texas. . . a Physical Education Major, Dave is in his third season as a Gent.

THE TRANS AMERICA ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Trans America Athletic Conference

On September 19, 1978, eight NCAA Division I basketball schools formed a new Conference named the Trans America Athletic Conference. The charter members were Centenary College, Hardin-Simmons University, Houston Baptist University, Mercer University, Northeast Louisiana University, Oklahoma City University, Pan American University, and Samford University. Oklahoma City University and Pan American University left the Conference during the 1979-80 school year. Georgia Southern College and Northwestern State University of Louisiana became new members of the TAAC in 1979, and the University of Arkansas at Little Rock in 1980.

In October 1978, the Conference received its allied conference status from the NCAA, which gave the TAAC full voting privileges at the NCAA conventions, and it was the first step in meeting the NCAA criteria for automatic qualification for the NCAA Division I basketball and baseball championships.

The Conference played a round-robin basketball schedule and tournament during the 1979-80 season with Centenary College winning the championship. A divisional round-robin schedule and tournament was played during the 1980-81 season, with Mercer winning the TAAC tournament in Shreveport, Louisiana, at the Hirsch Coliseum. Starting with the 1981-82 basketball season the Conference will play a double round-robin schedule with a Conference tournament being played at the end of the season at Monroe, Louisiana.

Many people in the sports world marveled at the quickness and thoroughness the Presidents, Directors of Athletics, Faculty Chairmen of Athletics and coaches were able to organize the Conference. A Conference which promises to contribute a great deal to NCAA championship play, and also to the full development of its student athletes, both in an academic and athletic way.

As one member of the media has stated, "Watch the TAAC Grow."

SUPERSTARS ($1,000-UP) ALL-STARS ($999-$500)
COACHES ($499-$250) PLAYERS ($249-$125)

For over 20 years, The Gents Club has supported Centenary Athletics. Thanks to a vigorous drive, membership and financial support this year was nearly doubled over any previous effort. Gents Club support has a direct relationship to the quality of athletics at Centenary and its role in the Shreveport-Bossier community. In return, members can become involved in Centenary athletics through season ticket seating preference, buffet, luncheons, newsletters, brochures, calendars, charter bus trips and other activities. Any inquiries for membership may be made to The Gents Club, P.O. Box 4188, Shreveport, LA 71104.

Officers in 1981-82 Jerry Sawyer, president; Howard Sutton, Brenda Haley, vice-presidents; Ed Shaw, secretary-treasurer; Ronnie Sawyer, past president.

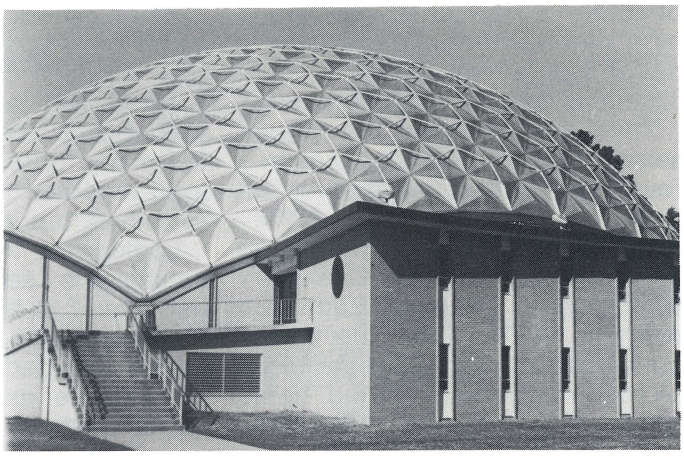
WHERE THE GENTS PLAY



THE GOLD DOME

The geodesic Gold Dome is a landmark located just south of the main Centenary College campus. Besides housing the Centenary basketball team, the Gold Dome is a multi-purpose facility, constructed at a cost of $1.3 million plus equipment.

With a seating capacity of 4,000, including cushioned armchairs on the upper level bleachers encircling the court, the Gents have a home court seldom equaled by schools of its size.

Unique features of the structure include a Tartan floor, indirect lighting and the attractive gold anodized aluminum dome. The completely air-conditioned facility contains office space for the athletic and physical education departments, two classrooms, including one of the theater variety, and four large carpeted dressing rooms.

Like the building itself, the basketball court is a multi-purpose area, easily converted into two cross-court basketball courts, or eight volleyball courts, or 16 badminton courts. At the east end of the building are two championship handball courts, complete with spectator windows.

The dome was designed by the Shreveport architectural firm of Somdal-Smitherman-Sorensen-Sherman and Associates. Whitaker Construction Company of Shreveport was the contractor, while the Temcor Company of California erected the gold-colored dome.

Ladies Successful . . .

Tonight the Centenary Ladies bring a 4-2 record into the Gold Dome. Because of printing deadlines, I'm unable to update this record. The Ladies played in Tyler last Monday against Tyler Junior College.

But, I am able to tell you how well the Ladies are doing this year. Last season, as a club sport, the Ladies were 0-18. It was the first time Centenary had fielded a women's basketball team. Alas, the 1981-82 season is a complete turn-around.

In its first varsity season, the Centenary Ladies basketball team is a team all of Centenary can be proud of. Enter a new head coach and nine new Ladies and you have a better than average team . . . right . . . in this case . . . most definitely.

The Ladies opened the regular season stringing off four wins in a row before suffering their first setback against Wiley College at Wiley on November 19, 79-65. It all started on November 2 when Centenary slipped past Ouachita Baptist in overtime 78-76. Then, the Ladies outlasted East Texas Baptist 86-55 on the road and returned home where they pounded LSU-Alexandria 107-29. Afterwards, the Ladies were back on the road and walloped Southern Arkansas 84-46.

After the setback at Wiley, the Ladies traveled down to Louisiana College on Saturday and suffered its second setback, losing a 71-70 squeaker in overtime.

Although the Ladies are 4-2, head women's basketball coach Joe St. André is very disappointed with the offense at this stage in the young season. "We're not turning the offense over like we should," André explained. "Our timing is off and we look like we're not moving as a unit. We're still playing hard on defense, but I'm really worried about our offense."

In the Ladies first four victories they outscored their opponents 37 points per game. In addition, they were out rebounding their opponents 17 rebounds per game. At the same time they had limited their opponents to only 71 field goals, while the Ladies had made 145. But, in the Ladies last two games, they have given up 150 points, an average of 75 points per game. And on the boards, the Ladies have been out rebounded 100-80, a 50-40 ratio.

Looking into six games though, the Ladies are still averaging 81 points per game, while their opposition is only averaging 51 points per outing. Not a bad defensive effort. The Ladies have made 200 field goals, while their opponents have only made 130. The Ladies are hitting on 65 percent from the free throw line, and their opponents 63.

When one looks at the Ladies six game statistics it's hard to wonder how a coach could be so disappointed with a team's offensive output. But, coach St. André feels too many turnovers and too many fouls together have hurt the Ladies in both of their losses.

Looking at the teams turnover column, the Ladies have turned the ball over 114 times an average of 19 per outing. In addition, the Ladies have committed 137 fouls, an average of 23 per game. They have also had at least one Lady foul out each game, and on two occasions the Ladies lost two.

Normally, when you lose one or two players in a single game, a team can insert a player and keep going, but in St. André's case, he only has nine Ladies dressed out. Anytime you lose a key player it hurts, and when you're down to eight with three or four starters already playing with four fouls each, that last five minutes of the game changes drastically.

Nevertheless, the Ladies are playing well and already have had a successful season, win, lose or draw the rest of the way.

Kathy Messer, a 5-6 junior guard from Waldo Arkansas, is the team's leading scorer averaging 19.6 points per game, while shooting a hot 82 percent from the charity stripe. She is 18-22. Tamiko Frank, a 5-7 freshman guard from Bossier City, is averaging 14.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per outing. She has done an excellent job coming off the bench, while not starting in a single game this season.

Nancy Hultquist, a 5-5 junior guard from Panola Junior College, is averaging 9.3 points per game and Zebber Satcher took over the third spot scoring 24 points last Saturday against Louisiana College. She is averaging 12.0 points and 9 rebounds per game. Tempie Ratcliff, a 6-0 junior forward from Logansport, is averaging 8 points per outing and 5 rebounds. Wendy Thomas is averaging 7 points, Mary Jo Monzingo 4, and Linda Howard and Penny Davis each are averaging 3. Penny is playing perhaps the best defense on the squad right now.

PLAY BASKETBALL THIS SUMMER AT CENTENARY'S 21ST ANNUAL BASKETBALL CAMP

Tommy Canterbury, a Louisiana Tech grad from Simsboro, Louisiana, is a veteran of eleven years of basketball camps. Canterbury coached seven years at the high school level averaging over twenty wins per season. He has been the head coach of the Gents for three full seasons.

Tommy Vardeman, the witty Gent assistant coach from Center, Texas, is a real veteran of summer basketball camps. He headed Louisiana Tech camps for four years and has worked in numerous others for nine years. A Stephen F. Austin grad, Vardeman has been very instrumental in the Gents rise back to basketball prominence.

AIMS OF THE CAMP

The goals of the Centenary basketball camp are two-fold. First, to teach new skills in fundamentally sound basketball and to improve skills in the finer points of the game. Secondly, it is our desire not only to develop basketball skills, but also to teach the all important ideals of good sportsmanship, leadership and citizenship.

BOYS AND GIRLS

Both camps are held on the campus of Centenary College, Shreveport, Louisiana.

BASKETBALL CAMP DATES

Cross Country and Soccer Conclude Regular Season . . .

Currently Centenary College competes in four women's sports — basketball, cross country, gymnastics and tennis — and five men's sports — basketball, cross country, golf, soccer and tennis.

With the 1981-82 season underway both cross country and soccer have completed their regular seasons with each doing very well.

To begin with, the Centenary Cross Country team once again finished third in the Trans America Athletic Conference Championship in Calhoun, Louisiana October 31. It was the second consecutive year Centenary finished in the third spot. Northeast Louisiana grabbed the Conference Championship with 16 points, followed by Northwestern with 63, Centenary 70, Samford 91, Houston Baptist 126 and Hardin-Simmons 164.

Centenary's own Steve Greenchik placed fifth and was named to the TAAC All-Conference Team. Steve finished the 10,000-meter Pine Hills Golf Course run in 33:24.

Brian Dempsey finished 13th (35:03), David Bellar 14th (36:02), Greg Blackman 16th (36:17), Don Bernhart 22nd (38:15), Danny Talley 23rd (38:47) and Byron Roberts 35th (44:23).

Although Centenary placed third, head cross country coach Royce Shaw felt his harriers should have done a lot better. "Our younger runners did not run a very smart race," Shaw explained. "We should have finished second easily. Our runners are still very young and it shows on the course. They will do much better next year."

On the other hand, the Centenary Soccer team did very well this season. The Kickers were winless in 1980, but they scored three victories during the 1981 season and finished with a 3-12 record.

The Soccer team finished sixth in the TAAC Tournament in Monroe, Louisiana November 13-14. In the two-day tournament Centenary lost the opening match on Friday to Georgia Southern 1-0, lost the afternoon match to Houston Baptist 3-0, and came back on Saturday and lost to Mercer University 2-1.

Even though the Kickers finished sixth, they were the talk of the league. "If we had any shooters at all we would have been in the championship game," head Soccer coach Enos Russell said. "We were not just playing defense out there either. We were trying to score, but we just could not get it into the goal. Next year we are going to have a few scholarship players and that in itself will help us tremendously."

Scott Davidson, a freshman from Bossier City, was the third leading vote getter, as selected by the coaches, and was praised by all the coaches in the TAAC. Davidson earned All-Conference honors as a back. It also marked the first time that a Centenary Soccer player was honored with All-Conference honors.

In all, ten players were named to the All-Conference team. Georgia Southern and Hardin-Simmons each landed three, Houston Baptist and Mercer University each had two, while Centenary and Northeast Louisiana each placed one.

Hungry Cuz?...

After the game or any time you're hungry, come to see me at Shreve City or 9355 Mansfield Rd. Centenary people are MY people and I'll take care of you with the finest Italian food anywhere. You won't be hungry when you leave my place!
